

Special Outings - Booking Policy

Tickets cannot be put on hold. Once a name has been put on the list, it is assumed that they are attending and will be making the required payment. The full cost of the play trip ticket is non-refundable (includes cost of transportation & ticket itself). If you need to cancel, you must call the office by the RSVP deadline for the trip. If cancelling after the RSVP date, it is your responsibility to find someone to purchase your ticket in your place unless we have a wait list. You will be required to pay it in full if no replacement is found.

Please note: Pick up times are subject to change. Mitchell Outreach will call the week prior to each show to confirm pick up times and locations.
